Executive board
The decision-making body, responsible for ensuring the objectives of the Greater Cambridge city deal are met
The executive board is responsible for commissioning projects funded by money provided through the city deal and for overall control of that programme of investments.
The board comprises three elected members with full voting rights (one from each of the three partner councils) and two non-voting members co-opted by the executive board; one nominated by the business board, and one nominated by the University of Cambridge. Standing orders also provide for the appointment of a substitute member from each partner body. Nominations are submitted to the executive board for approval.
The executive board was formally established by Cambridge City Council, Cambridgeshire County Council and South Cambridgeshire District Council. It is a joint committee of the three councils.
