Dear Sirs, My name is Tony Poulston and I am a resident in the village of Tackley. I am writing to object to the proposed changes to the Tackley Bridleway. Until closed, this ancient bridleway was regularly used by residents and visitors not only as a walking route to Kirtlington but also as a bridleway for horses. I have a real concern that the latest proposal could potentially prove more dangerous than the previous arrangement and that it will be eroding further the ancient rights of the countryside.

Yours faithfully
Tony Poulston
