Report Suspicious

Dear sirs

Why is the Bridleway in Tackley re-routed by Network Rail taking us only 4 metres away from the tracks. Does no one at Network Rail ride - or care what happens to a horse in this situation? Surely it's obvious this is going to create an impossible scenario or is that the result Network Rail are looking for. Absolutely disgraceful.

Pedestrians and cyclists will also have to use the same route for 1kilometre alongside horses and riders with all the resulting danger.

Sincerely
Karen Davies
