Dear Sir

I am writing to object to the proposed closure of the Moorgate Crossing.

The closure of this crossing will block a very popular and historic pathway and there are no good or safe alternative routes. The Network Rail proposals for an alternative route are unacceptable and dangerous. Whilst I am a supporter of the upgrade to the rail line, I believe that this must be carried out in a way that is sympathetic to the communities and facilities that lie along the rail route. I would therefore urge Network Rail to think again and return to their original plan of creating a pedestrian bridge to replace the crossing.

I have seen the documents submitted by the Moorgate Campaign Group and strongly support their arguments and rationale.

Yours sincerely

Gordon Bridgwood
